Case No. CV-17-00540-RSL

11           Plaintiff,

12          v.

13          THE STANDARD INSURANCE
14          COMPANY, an Oregon corporation,

15           Defendant.

16
17          STIPULATION AND [PROPOSED] ORDER
18          FOR FUNCTIONAL CAPACITY
19          EXAMINATION

21          Defendant STANDARD INSURANCE COMPANY ("Standard") and Plaintiff
22          MELISSA TETREAULT ("Tetraeault") respectfully submit this stipulation and proposed order
23          for functional capacity examination under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 35.

24
25          The parties hereby stipulation that Plaintiff Melissa Tetraeault will submit to a functional
26          capacity examination on February 28, 2018 at Everett Pacific Industrial Rehabilitation at 8:00 a.m. at 11627 Airport Rd # H, Everett, WA 98204. The exam will be conducted by Dr.
Theodore Becker. Plaintiff Tetraeault may be accompanied by one individual of her choosing who will solely observe and will not comment or interfere with the examination in any way.

27
28          The exam shall consist of medical history, physical examination and evaluation of 29          Plaintiff's upper extremities, and functional capacity testing of Plaintiff's upper extremities

1 including but not limited to testing of strength, motion, flexibility and validity and effort.

2 || Additionally:

- Plaintiff will not be required to disrobe or remove any clothing beyond what is necessary to examine her upper extremities;
  - Plaintiff will not be required to perform any action that causes her pain or that may aggravate her injuries;
  - Plaintiff will not be asked, and need not answer, questions outside the scope of pertinent medical history and questions necessary to carry out the functional capacity exam itself; and
  - Defendant may not have any attorney, agent, or other person present during the examination, other than Dr. Becker and his staff.

IT IS FURTHER STIPULATED that Defendant will provide Plaintiff a copy of a detailed written report setting out the history, examinations, findings, including the results of all tests made, diagnose, prognoses, and conclusions of the examiner, Theodore Becker, M.D., within 5 days upon Defendant's receipt of same.
